We will arrive to this pearl town of the Adriatic Sea before noon. Each corner of the city is an unique experience that makes all occasions special. You will find out more about Dubrovnik while attending the guided tour. The guided tour lasts for about an hour, enough time to visit the main attractions.

Take in views of the Baroque Cathedral, and see the magnificent Treasury. Continue to the fortress-like Dominican Monastery and Baroque Church of St Blaise. Visit the Rector's Palace of the glorious Republic of Dubrovnik, and marvel at its harmonious blend of Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque architecture.

After a pleasant walk along numerous sites, you are able to explore the hidden corners of the town by yourself. Feel free to climb the walls or take a cable car, try the authentic national dishes in the local taverns or just enjoy a cup of coffee in the nearby cafes.

Driving to Split, Kaštela or Trogir in the early evening.
