Description

Your tour begins with 90 minutes ride in our speedboat to the east side of Biševo island, where you will see famous Blue Cave. Blue Cave is one of the most famous places on the Adriatic sea. There is a narrow entrance and its passable by small boat only when the sea is calm. Every drop of water inside radiates its own color. That's why it is one of most beautiful caves of Europe. After visiting we you are going around the southern side of the island Vis we will stop for enjoy beach and snorkel time in the most attractive and unusual cove Stiniva. Recent European Best Destinations award for the best European beach of 2016 went to Stiniva beach, proving its inviting charm to tourists worldwide. Forward, we are going to visit just from the distance Green Cave. Green Cave is another natural phenomenon in Croatia, located on the islet Ravnik, on the southern side of Vis island. It is less famous than the Blue Cave, but definitely worth visiting. Enjoy a wonderful swim for one hour at Blue lagoon situated between 3 islets on island Budikovac just 10 min away from island Ravnik. There is wonderful shallow water with sandy beach with one coffee bar and restaurant, if you want to have refreshments during or after swimming. Visiting from the sea side Pakleni islands where you can take amazing pictures from the boat. After that, you will be driven to beautiful town Hvar on island Hvar, where you will have free time to explore cultural sights of the one of the most beautiful World's harbor. In Hvar you have free time, to sightsee or to have a lunch. In Hvar you can sightsee the old town, the promenade, Arsenal – the third oldest theatre in Europe, the Cathedral of Saint Stephen, Bishop's palace and take a 20 min walk to the fortress Španjola, magnificent view on Pakleni islands and old town. After all it is time to return to Kaštela.
