Description

The tour's first stop will be at Milna bay on island Brač for a coffee break on the beautiful promenade. Milna is a typical fishermen village known as well as a sailing paradise. On the way, just before Milna bay you will see small island Mrduja (where the residents of Brač and Šolta perform annual tug-of-war to determine the ownership of the tiny island of Mrduja). Our skippers are more than willing to stop with the ride for a good photo and to not expose your camera.

On the full day tour of Hvar island you will see the town's Hvar top sites and enjoy in swimming on the Pakleni islands, just nearby. In town Hvar you have three hours of free time, more than enough time to discover this stunning town. Town Hvar is one of the most famous destinations in Dalmatia. You can get lost in the rich history of town Hvar. Take a walk on the promenade, where you can have a break for coffee and prepare for exploring the old town. You can visit the third oldest theatre in Europe – Arsenal (nowadays Art gallery), the cathedral of Saint Stephen and Bishop's place with the biggest square in Dalmatia – Pjaca. We recommend to take a 20 min walk to climb up to the fortress Španjola – Fortica, built in 16th century to defend the town from Turks. Its history and magnificent view on Pakleni islands and old town will thrill you. From town Hvar is very easy to reach with a boat Pakleni islands, just 10 minutes away, uninhabited islands. We will take you to Palmižana bay, famous for its sandy beaches where you can enjoy in turquoise crystal clear sea for swimming, snorkeling and rare nature beauties, like smell of lavender and rosemary bushes. Pakleni islands are known as Botanic garden (different plants, lots of cactuses and other greenery and flowers). There are a few bars and restaurants if you would like to have a refreshment. Town Hvar will thrill you with its mild climate, rich cultural and historic heritage, good food and crystal clear sea. After enjoying all day it is time to return to Kaštela at 6:45 p.m.
