Description

This tour is a great way to explore neighboring islands of Split. First stop will be at Milna bay on island Brač for a coffee break on the beautiful promenade. Milna is typical fisherman village known as well as a Sailing paradise.

In town Hvar you have three hours of free time, that is enough time to discover this stunning town. Town Hvar is one of the famous destination in Dalmatia full of amazing history. You can visit the third old theatre in the Europe Arsenal (nowdays Art gallery), the cathedral of Saint Stephen and Bishop's place with the biggest square in Dalmatia – Hvar's Pjaca. We recommend to take a 20 min walk to climb up to the fortress Španjola – Fortica, built to defend the town from Turks.

Just 10 minutes from Hvar town breathtaking Pakleni islands are situated. Our skipper will take you to Palmižana bay, famous by its sandy beaches where you can enjoy in turquoise crystal sea for swimming, snorkelling and smell of lavender and rosemary bushes. There is also a few bars and restaurant if you would like to have refreshments.

After enjoying in this amazing all day tour it is time to return to Split at 6:30 p.m. and Trogir at 7:00 p.m.
